2. Deny all higher education except on absolute proof of ability. No student should be admitted to a college or university unless be or she has earned a scholarship or has otherwise demonstrated unused a bility. Public universities should be more stringent in this respect than private, rich universities the private school is unusersitiable.

 Deny free travel privileges to children. For instance, raise the age minimum of drivers' licenses to thirty or forty. Deny foreign travel except to those who have been required the privilege from their school.

 Set aside a large land area for all dissidents to reside m, with ingress but no egress. As children think the world is their personal property, gwe them their acre of personal property. Keep them there.

3. Discourage the covardee and institudation of parents and "authorities" by reeducating them to the nature of the 'blance.
